DUNNING WILL NOT CONTEST QUEEN'S SEAT

Finance Minister Announces Withdrawal From Politics Because of Ill Health

POSSIBILITY OF EARLY GENERAL ELECTION GROWS

OTTAWA, Aug. 3 (P).—Formal announcement by Finance Minister Dunning that he will not be a candidate when the Liberals of Queens County, Prince Edward Island, meet in convention to choose their standard bearer for the next general election, confirmed today the rumors that Prime Minister King would have to select a new man for that portfolio.

Mr. Dunning, whose illness since a year ago last June seriously interfered with his official duties, has placed his resignation in the hands of Mr. King, but the latter, in a statement made on Tuesday, said that he declined to accept it.

Mr. Dunning will leave almost immediately on a health-seeking trip to Europe, with the primary intention of visiting the rural districts of Leicestershire, where he was born.

EARLY ELECTION FORESEEN
Among the ministers of the Government and in the rank and file there appears to be a conviction a general election will be held within the next two or three months.

In that event, with Mr. Dunning not running as a candidate, it would not be necessary for the Prime Minister to accept his resignation, which would go out of office automatically.

On several occasions Mr. King has said that his decision on the date of the general election depended upon

ANOTHER MONEY BILL IS KILLED
U.S. House Refuses to Consider Slum Clearance and Housing Measure

WASHINGTON, Aug. 3 (P).—The United States House of Representatives today rejected the slum clearance and housing bill, which passed the Senate last week, by a vote of 191-171.

The coalition consisted of 137 Republicans and 54 Democrats. A total of 159 Democrats, eight Republicans, and three minor party members supported the Administration.

BATTLE IN SENATE
In the Senate, a row was evidently developing over the slum clearance bill, which at its passage the House failed to provide funds for a continuation of price-busting loans on farm commodities.

Omission of funds for this purpose was another victory for the economy. The Senate, however, had repeatedly shown itself more inclined to appropriate for farm relief than the other branch of Congress, and an effort to write a $110,000,000 amendment for farm loans into the bill was in the making.

Five Girl Dancers Seriously Burned

SPokane, Wash., Aug. 3 (P).—Five girls were seriously burned tonight when their thin gauze costumes caught fire as they danced in the closing scene of "Columbia Cavalcade," a pageant celebrating the state's golden jubilee.

A crowd of 7,000 watched in horror when the dancers suddenly were wrapped in fire. Three men were reported burned in an attempt to beat out the flames with their hands.

The girls were Sally Lacy, Addie Felker, Geraldine Smith, Patricia Sells and Virginia Wiesel. All were taken to hospitals, where attendants said they had suffered second degree burns.

Motion to Block Fuel Price Cut Is Set for Today

THE motion, filed by oil companies operating in British Columbia seeking to restrain the Provincial Government from putting into effect on Monday the new gasoline price regulation which would compel a general reduction of three cents in wholesale and retail prices, will be heard in Court of Appeal chambers here at 11 a.m. today. Hon. G. S. Wlamer, K.C., Attorney-General, will oppose the motion in person, for the Province.

WAS PIONEER OF SAANICH

Mrs. Mary Ann Brooks Lived Here for Many Years

One of the oldest residents of Vancouver Island, and a pioneer of Saanich, Mrs. Mary Ann Parker Brooks, passed away yesterday in her ninety-seventh year, at the family residence, Stellys Crossroad, Saanich.

Born in White Sands, Prince Edward Island, she was the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. White, members of families long resident in that community. In 1864, when she was twenty-two years old, she married, and her husband continued for nine years to live in Prince Edward Island, where they had a small farm. In 1873 they moved to Illinois, but after two years returned once again to Canada, bringing with them their first-born, John L. Brooks, with whom Mrs. Brooks was living at the time of her death.

Their next home was in Bruce County, Ontario, where they farmed for about ten years, and where a daughter, now Mrs. John W. Morris, of Vancouver, was born. In 1884 they came to Vancouver Island, and purchased 100 acres of farmland at Stellys Crossroad, later increasing this to 150 acres. Mr. Brooks passed away thirty-four years ago, and since then the son, John L. Brooks, has continued to operate the farm with his mother, with the exception of a few years she lived with her daughter in Vancouver.

PIONEER SPIRIT

Mrs. Brooks had typical pioneer energy, and besides the multitudinous activities of her household found time to give to her church and any neighbor's need. Until advancing years prescribed her movements she was a faithful church attendant. Until about three years ago she had remarkable health, and within the past ten years made quite a reputation for her patch-work quilts, of which she had produced twenty within this time. Seven years ago she won first prize at the Vancouver Fair with one of her quilts, and practically every member of the family had received a quilt from her.

Endowed with an almost photographic memory, she could give most spirited accounts of incidents and happenings of pioneer life here and

Collective Security Principle Advocated By Leading Canadians

Series of Messages Gathered by League of Nations Society Stresses Necessity of Assuming Related Obligations

OTTAWA, Aug. 3 (P).—Adherence of the nations to the principle of collective security, together with the assumption by them of the obligations that such a principle imposes, is urged in a series of messages gathered by the League of Nations Society in Canada, and issued today on the eve of the twenty-fifth anniversary of the outbreak of the Great War. Prominent Canadians contributed to the symposium collected by the League Society's headquarters. Among them were Rt. Hon. Arthur Meighen, former Prime Minister of Canada; Senator W. A. Buchanan, Leithbridge; A. K. Huggessen, Montreal; and Cairine Wilson, Ottawa. Others were Rev. Dr. William Bestie, London, Ont., a well-known war-time padre; Dr. H. M. Tory, former president of the National

Use Fire Hoses to Fight Off Police

A force of 250 law enforcement officers was beaten off by the use of fire hoses when they attempted to board the gambling ship Rex, anchored off Los Angeles. The six hundred patrons were marooned aboard the ship during the struggle for its possession. After being beaten off the law officers retired to a safe distance and sat down to wait. Soon the signal of surrender was flashed from the Rex. Members of the Rex's crew are shown here playing fire hoses on one of the police boats.

Japanese Envoys Consider Closer Axis Adherence

Meeting at Villa D'Este Believed of Political Importance—Tokio Eventually May Work More Closely With Berlin and Rome on Military and Economic Questions

ROME, Aug. 3 (P).—Reliable sources disclosed tonight that the Japanese Ambassadors to Italy and Germany, with their Embassy advisers and military attaches, were meeting at Villa D'Este, near Lake Como, to consider "closer adherence of Tokio to the two axis powers."

Although a Japanese secretary at Villa D'Este denied the reported purpose of the conference, he admitted the meeting was being held.

The reliable sources, however, attributed the following statement as being issued from the conference: "Villa D'Este was not chosen by mere chance for this meeting of ours after those which have already had in Rome and Berlin."

FRUITFUL AGREEMENTS
"It will be recalled that the Italian and German Foreign Ministers met here to conclude the agreements fruitful in prosperity and power for the two friendly nations and Japan, all adherents to the Anti-Comintern Pact.

"This is a good augury for us who have now more fully examined the question of an eventually closer adherence of Tokio to the two axis powers."

The Italian and German Foreign Ministers, Count Galeazzo Ciano and Joachim von Ribbentrop, signed an agreement, the German-Italian Military Alliance, at Villa D'Este on May 7.

The Japanese ambassadors to Rome and Germany have been reported favoring a closer alliance with the axis powers, though Japan with the axis powers, though

SENATOR TAFT TO SEEK NOMINATION

Son of Late President to Be Candidate for Republican Choice for Presidency

CINCINNATI, Aug. 3 (P).—Senator Robert A. Taft announced today his candidacy for the Republican nomination for United States President with the comment that the past week in Congress "has knocked out of the window any chance of a third term for Mr. Roosevelt."

The son of the late President and Chief Justice William Howard Taft said "all the polls and the logic of the situation indicate Mr. Roosevelt would be the weakest candidate the Democrats could put up."

Citing slashed appropriations as a "reflection of what the public wants," Taft said in an interview that "the people are against pouring out money to produce prosperity and passage of the Hatch Bill shows they are against spending relief money to promote a candidacy."

CHILLIWACK MAN IS HISSAT AT BY COUGAR

CHILLIWACK, B.C., Aug. 3 (P).—Two local residents have had face-to-face experiences with a cougar along the lonely River Road. Carl Teskey related today how he sat down for a cigarette this week and saw the animal "inches away."

A W. Voight, Jr. said he saw one of the animals in the same spot recently and it "hisied at him like a cat" before disappearing.

FERRY USERS TAKE A HAND

Serve Ultimatums on Strikers and Employers—Conference Settles Nothing

SEATTLE, Aug. 3 (P).—Another union-employer conference today failed to settle the two-day-old Puget Sound ferry boat strike, which has tied up ships of two lines and affected about 10,000 daily commuters and 450 employees.

Commuters to and from various islands dotting the Sound resorted to chartering private yachts and other boats or traveling a lengthy route by motor and a down-Sound ferry unaffected by the strike. Island resort owners were fearful a prolonged strike would end tourist business.

Indignant commuters, banded together into the ferry users' committee, served ultimatums on both sides of the controversy. They demanded the Inland Boatmen's Union, which called the strike for higher wages, send members back to work immediately and that the transportation companies discharge the men permanently if they did not return.

The citizens said otherwise they would apply to the State Department of Public Service for cancellation of the certificates of necessity under which the ferry lines operate.

ARE EXPELLED FROM ENGLAND

Nearly Fifty Irish Terrorists Now Dealt With Under New Law

LONDON, Aug. 3 (P).—With defiant shouts of "long live the republic," nine more expelled Irish terrorists left Liverpool for Elre today, bringing the total number of such expulsions during the last twenty-four hours to sixteen.

Sir Samuel Hoare, Home Secretary, today signed four expulsion orders and three orders forbidding suspected terrorists from entering England. This brought the number of expulsion orders signed thus far to forty-one, and to five the number of orders against entry of terrorists.

Sir Samuel Hoare has signed forty-six orders against men and women accused of being members of the illegal Irish Republican Army since emergency legislation was rushed through Parliament last week to stamp out the terrorist campaign.

Of the forty-six orders, forty-five were expulsions for Irishmen living in Great Britain and five were refusals for entry into Great Britain.

Big Strike At Detroit Is Settled

DETROIT, Aug. 4 (P).—The strike of 7,500 skilled workers employed in twelve plants of General Motors Corporation was settled early today. James F. Dewey, Federal labor conciliator, said an agreement terminating the walk-out, which began July 5, was reached by negotiators for the corporation and the Congress of Industrial Organizations United Automobile Workers, which called the strike.

The proposed settlement, he said, will be submitted to a meeting of union members here today and, if approved there, then will be acted upon separately by the strikers at the plants affected.

AIRSHIP SEEN NEAR SCOTLAND

German Dirigible Sighted Twenty Miles Off Coast—Berlin Is Surprised

LONDON, Aug. 3 (P).—An airship sighted off the east coast of Scotland this afternoon was identified by two planes from the 612th Squadron of the Auxiliary Air Force as the German Graf Zeppelin.

The Zeppelin was about twenty miles east of Aberdeen, and was traveling in a northeasterly direction.

The LZ-130, sister ship of the exploded Hindenburg and named for the smaller Graf Zeppelin now decommissioned, completed its first test flight last September.

ON EXPERIMENTAL FLIGHT
BERLIN, Aug. 3 (P).—The propaganda Ministry said the Graf Zeppelin was making an experimental flight over the North Sea tonight, but expressed surprise the airship had been sighted off Scotland.

Officials said that they had not expected the Graf would go in that direction. The flight started at 10 o'clock this morning and had no military purpose, the Ministry said. It was in no way associated with today's air maneuvers in Western and Northern Germany, it was stated.

Flames, Fanned by High Wind, Do Heavy Damage To Plant on Industrial Reserve—Estimate of Loss Not Determined—Fire Ignites Grass And Threatens Other Buildings

Origin of Blaze Not Yet Known; Explosions Heard

A SPECTACULAR fire early this morning in the ground wood mill of the Sidney Roofing & Paper Company, Limited, burned the structure to the ground. The large building, situated on the water's edge, is several hundred feet from the main plant, near the gasoline tanks of the Union Oil Company.

While no estimate of the loss could be obtained, it mounted into some thousands of dollars.

The flames, fanned by a strong southwest wind illuminated the entire harbor, and for a time threatened adjoining structures. Fortunately the wind carried the blaze past gasoline tanks. Sparks were carried high into the air for hundreds of feet and caused several minor grass fires on the industrial reserve, where the Sidney Roofing plant is located. Rows of piled firewood along a road near the blaze were threatened on several occasions when sparks fell on them.

OFF-DUTY MEN CALLED
All equipment from the main fire station and the Burns pump engine, in addition to fourteen extra men, were called into action.

Squads of firemen repeatedly dragged hoses long distances to extinguish grass fires. Piles of wood fuel burst into flames at widely separated points periodically, adding to the difficulties of the fire fighters. At 1:45 o'clock all the lights in the plant went out and the night

SITUATION IN DANZIG ACUTE

Poland's Economic Reprisals Against Free City Blow To Business

WARSAW, Aug. 3 (P).—Authoritative Polish quarters said tonight the business and industrial situation in Danzig was becoming "more and more acute."

These quarters said, however, that Poland's "economic reprisals" now in effect against the Free City would be continued until Polish customs officials were permitted to perform their duties there.

RUMORS ARE DENIED
Persistent rumors that Danzig authorities were preparing to open the frontier between the Free City and Germany's East Prussia drew the comment that "any such action would result in severe consequences."

"Danzig Nazis accused Poland of starting a 'herring and margarine war' last Tuesday when those two important Danzig products were banned from import into Poland. Poles said the imports had been stopped by inability of customs officials to perform their duties of inspecting the products."

MUST REMAIN IN SERVICE

DANZIG, Aug. 3 (CP-HAVAS).—Nazi authorities today ordered all members of Danzig armed forces to sign a declaration that they will remain in service until the Free City is returned to the Reich.

Tomorrow night important aerial landing manoeuvres will be executed by planes owned by the Free City authorities on the Langfuhr Airfield.

Thirteen Hundred of Britain's Planes to Take Part in Tests

Manoeuvres to Be Biggest in History of Royal Air Force—Efficiency of Land and Air Defences Will Be Thoroughly Tested Next Week

LONDON, Aug. 3 (P).—Great Britain will stage next week the biggest air force manoeuvres in its history to show the force of Prime Minister Chamberlain's announcement that the nation "is ready to an emergency."

Royal Air Force planes numbering 1,300 will participate in the manoeuvres which will last from Monday morning to Thursday evening. The largest number of craft engaged in manoeuvres previously was in 1938 when 900 took part. The chief aim is to prove the efficiency of land and air defence against aerial attack.

The manoeuvres will be held in the area south and east of a line drawn between Witherby, Macclesfield and Drolwich in Worcestershire, to Salisbury and Bournemouth, near Southampton.

About 500 of the 900 aircraft in the "defence" force will be fighting planes. Fifty scout planes will participate.

The land forces will comprise units which have specialized in scouting operations, balloon barrage units, auxiliary air force and contingents of observation corps. The bombing "raids" will be scattered over the defence area in order to give the land forces the most varied possible opportunities to obtain practical experience.

The attacking forces will include 500 bombing planes. Their "raids" will come from territories situated to the east of the zone of operations. Passive defence units will also exercise throughout a wide zone on Wednesday night. Blackouts will take place in London and twenty other countries of Southeastern Europe.

Prickly Porky Is as Good as His Word

By THORNTON W. BURGESS

Now when Prickly Porky said that he would come down from the top of the tall tree, because Buster Bear couldn't come up, everybody held his breath. It was hard to believe that Prickly Porky really and truly meant what he said. Everyone knew how independent Prickly Porky was, but still it was hard to believe that he would of his own accord come down and face great, big Buster Bear when Buster was in such a bad temper. As for Buster, he didn't know what to do or say. He hoped with a very great hope that Prickly Porky had said this just to sound big and bold and brave.

But Prickly Porky intended to be just as good as his word. He finished the strip of bark he was eating and then very slowly he began to climb down. Prickly Porky is a you know, very slow-moving animal. He came down the thousand little steps in his coat rattled together and scraped against the branches of the tree in a way that made Buster Bear feel anything but comfortable. Now and then one of them would come loose and drop down.

Buster watched Prickly Porky come nearer and nearer. He wondered if it would be possible to reach out suddenly when Prickly Porky was within reach and knock him from the tree. Then he decided that this wouldn't do at all. You see as Prickly Porky drew near the ground he made those little spear stand up in every direction until he was as prickly as a chest-nut-burr. Buster knew that he couldn't possibly hit Prickly Porky without filling his own paw as full of those sharp pointed little spears as a porcupine is of pins.

Buster decided that the only thing he could do would be to try to frighten Prickly Porky. Prickly Porky growled and growled. Each growl was a little deeper and a little more rumbling than the one before. He walked over to another tree and stood upon his hind legs. Then he reached up and dug his great claws into the trunk of the tree and made long scratches down it. Those claws made a horrid sound as they tore through the bark. It made everybody shiver. That is, it made everybody but Prickly Porky shiver. He didn't appear to notice it at all. He just kept right on coming down, down, down. Then Buster tried a little more bluffing. He suddenly snarled and rushed toward that tree as if he had fully made up his mind to scramble up and meet Prickly Porky. Prickly Porky didn't pay him the least attention. Buster stopped short just before he reached the foot of the tree. There he sat and glared with eyes that were red with rage. He growled his deepest growl and snarled his ugliest snarl. He really was very terrible to see and hear.

But so far as Prickly Porky was concerned Buster Bear might have been a harmless stump. Slowly but steadily Prickly Porky came on down. All the little people looking on were so excited that it was with the greatest difficulty they could keep still. It was certain that Buster was going to have a chance to try to make good his threat. It began to look as if Buster had worked himself to such a rage that he really would undertake to do it. It was a very exciting moment. It was a tremendously exciting moment! What would Buster do?

Fire Hazard Mounts As Mercury Climbs Throughout Province

Scores of Blazes Reported in Various Sections, With Hundreds of Men Battling Flames—Incendiarism Suspected Near Salmon Arm

ADDITIONAL fire-fighters were recruited throughout British Columbia yesterday (Thursday) as rising temperatures and falling humidity increased the fire hazard. Scores of minor blazes were reported to forestry officials and police. Thermometers soared to the season's high mark in many sections.

The extra men were put on in an effort to check blazes which late yesterday threatened to spread.

Five spot fires reported in the Cranbrook district in the past two days were extinguished. The Forestry Department stated, and no other fires are burning in the district.

A fire on Marion Creek, in the mountains above Canal Flats, in the Kootenays, in thin mountain growth, is being held in check by a crew of fifty-five men.

The men blocked out the blaze as it neared merchantable timber, and the crew is remaining on hand to prevent its spreading north toward Kootenay National Park.

Suddenly the car skidded and crashed into a tree. The old man picked himself out of the ruins, filled his pipe, and remarked thoughtfully: "That certainly was fine, sir; but there's one thing that puzzles me. RESIGNS FROM POST
LONDON, Aug. 4 (P).—Earl Faversham resigned today as Parliamentary Secretary of the Agriculture Ministry, a post he held since September, 1936. A week ago he said he was withdrawing for personal reasons.

RETURNING TO WORK
NEW GLASGOW, N.S., Aug. 3 (P).—Four hundred striking employees of the Nova Scotia Steel & Coal Company's steel mill at nearby Trenton, decided late today to return to work, pending negotiation of their dispute with the company.

The owner of a racing car, driving along a country road, overtook an old man, and being of a kindly disposition offered him a lift. His passenger was tremendously impressed by the speed and luxury of the car, and to humor the old fellow he accelerated until they were traveling about sixty miles an hour. Suddenly the car skidded and crashed into a tree. The old man picked himself out of the ruins, filled his pipe, and remarked thoughtfully: "That certainly was fine, sir; but there's one thing that puzzles me. How do you stop her when there ain't no trees about?"

German Newspaper Sees Empire United If Britain Needs Aid

Marshal Goering's National Zeitung Says Dominion and India Would Quickly Rally Behind Mother Country in Event of War

BERLIN, Aug. 3 (C).—The National Zeitung of Eysen, Field Marshal Hermann Goering's newspaper, today said almost the entire Empire would go to the aid of Great Britain in the event of war.

South Africa was the only Dominion willing and able to remain neutral, the newspaper said, "but one must not forget the contradiction between the otherwise realistic and sensible political attitude of the Union and its egoistic hunger for power over the mandated territory of Southwest Africa (formerly a German colony)."

Else will not be able to remain neutral because Britain "can exercise immediate pressure on this Dominion and moreover Britain might win over Ireland by fulfilling the latter's last demand."

Canada, the paper continued, "must be expected to hurry to England's side more or less quickly." New Zealand was likely to join from the beginning "for ideological reasons."

INDIAN ASSISTANCE
The influence of the "English upper class should insure India's assistance through this might be rendered partly ineffective by the anti-English lower class."
Australia would make "some gesture on behalf of London" in the event of a European war, but if the conflict extended to the Pacific she "will try to keep out of the line of fire. Whether she can do so, however, depends not on Australia or England but on the attitude of certain opponents."

DUNNING'S NAME NOT CONSIDERED

Sir Edward Beatty Says Reports of Minister Being Offered Post "Unsupportable"

MONTREAL, Aug. 3 (C).—Sir Edward Beatty, chancellor of McGill University and member of the board of directors of the Bank of Montreal, today issued a statement in which he called "unsubstantiated" various reports that Hon. Charles Dunning, Dominion Finance Minister, might be named president of either institution.

"Much as we respect and admire him, his name has never been considered in connection with the vacancy in the presidency of the Bank of Montreal, nor as principal of McGill University," said the statement by Sir Edward, president and chairman of Canadian Pacific Railway.

The resignation of Dr. Lewis W. Douglas as president of McGill was announced some time ago, while Sir Charles Blair Gordon, president of the Bank of Montreal, died only a few days ago.

Is Bothered by Involved Language of Politicians

LONDON, Aug. 3 (C).—The tendency toward use of involved language by politicians is bothering A. P. Herbert, humorist and Independent member of Parliament for Oxford University.

In a letter to The Times he said this "corruption" also is creeping into the defence services and if Lord Nelson were alive now he never would say, "England expects every man to do his duty."

The admiral's statement, Mr. Herbert said, probably would run something like this: "England anticipates that as regards the current emergency, personnel will face up to the issues and exercise appropriately the functions allocated to their respective occupation groups."

WAS TIRELESS IN GOOD WORK

Mrs. Colin Cummins, Prominent in Church and I.O.D.E., Dies

Mrs. Colin Cummins, who for a score of years played a leading part in church, patriotic and social welfare activities in Victoria, and who held a high place in the affections of co-workers and a wide public died in the Becheroff Nursing Home early yesterday morning in her eighty-third year. She had been seriously ill since early in June.

Born at Kilburn, London, in 1859, Mary Louise Cummins was the daughter of the late Rev. James Bolton, rector of St. Paul's, Kilburn, and Mrs. Bolton. At the age of nineteen she married Henry Colin Cummins, the wedding taking place at the British Embassy in Paris. In 1883, after four years in Cornwall and Wales, Mr. and Mrs. Cummins, accompanied by their two small daughters, came out to Canada, and in Assiniboia, now Saskatchewan, began a protracted period of pioneering, during which six other children were born.

In 1897 they moved to Nelson. Here the family was supplemented by two more children during the eleven years before they moved to Greenwood, B.C., where Mr. Cummins became manager of the power plant.

It was in 1915, while they were in Greenwood, that Mr. and Mrs. Cummins experienced a tragic bereavement in the death of their eldest son, Thomas, who met with a fatal accident on the power line of the West Kootenay Power & Light Company at Cascade, of which he was manager. Two months later Mr. Cummins died and Mrs. Cummins shortly after came to live in Victoria, bringing with her two small daughters and her widowed daughter-in-law.

UNFLAGGING INTEREST
Active of mind and hand alike and a woman of culture and wide sympathies, Mrs. Cummins also had a keen pioneering spirit, and threw herself wholeheartedly into all manner of good works wherever she lived. Her major interest, first and last, was the church, and just three years ago the Columbia Diocesan W.A. made her a life member in recognition of years of devoted service here and in the Kootenay Diocese, where she was the first person to become a life member of the Anglican Women's Auxiliary. As recording secretary and press secretary of the Columbia Diocesan W.A. for the fourteen years prior to her resignation in 1927, she used her pen tirelessly, leaving a voluminous, detailed and lively record of the auxiliary's proceedings. Even after her retirement from office, she continued to take an interest in the organization's activities, and attended regularly until her last illness.

She was one of the senior members of the Imperial Order of the Daughters of the Empire, in the course of time holding the offices of regent or secretary of the St. James and Lady Douglas Chapter, and also at one time holding office in the Municipal Chapter.

MUSIC AND DRAMA
Her interest in music and the drama was well known wherever she had lived. She was a competent organist, and for several years played at St. Matthias' Church, Foul Bay. Until comparatively recently she was pianist for the Women's Canadian Club for incidental music. She had a great gift of humor and a ready wit, and in roles calling for this type of acting was much in demand during war days when the Red Cross Company was operating at one of the local theatres under the direction of Reginald Hicks. She was very active, too, in choral work, and for years sang in some of the big oratorios presented here.

There survive five daughters, Mrs. Harry Schmeiz, Tacoma, who is at present in Victoria; Mrs. Frank Pullen, Oakville, Ont.; Mrs. C. Arthur Clarke, Seattle; Mrs. R. Fusselman, Berkeley, Cal.; and Mrs. Everett H. Pettibone, Seattle; and nineteen grandchildren. Three brothers are still living, Robert G. Bolton—London; Reginald P. Bolton, New York; and Rev. W. W. Bolton, formerly of Victoria and now in Tahiti.

The remains are resting in the chapel of Sands Mortuary, Limited. Funeral services will be held in St. Matthias' Church tomorrow at 11 a.m. Rev. Alan Gardiner will officiate and interment will be in the family plot in Ross Bay Cemetery.

HITLERIAN POLICIES

Through an agreement between Germany and Italy, the transfer of Germans from the Alto Adige is taking place. In other words, the German minority there is being incorporated in the Reich by the simple process of immigration. There is no reason why the Danzig issue should not be decided in the same way. The majority of Danzingers are Nazis. They could be transported back to Germany and their places taken by Poles. Seemingly, however, the German policy is of the opportunistic variety. German minorities may be incorporated in the Reich, without any threat of force, or else the German legions must march to insure their inclusion, and the inclusion as well of the territory they inhabit.

The people of the South Tyrolese were not consulted about their fate. The right of self-determination was not exercised. Of them, The London Daily Telegraph says: "The South Tyrolese have indisputably been the worst mishandled minority in Europe during the past twenty years. By comparison, the treatment of the Sudeten Germans by the Czechs was generosity itself, while the Danzingers, of course, have enjoyed from first to last an unfettered local autonomy. In the light of his proceedings in the South Tyrol on the one hand, and in the Czech parts of Bohemia-Moravia on the other, Herr Hitler's claim to Danzig on the score of 'self-determination' becomes a sheer mockery."

The truth is that what Herr Hitler wants is the port of Danzig, so as to acquire new strategic power in the Baltic. If this were not his desire, the whole issue, which is keeping Europe on tenterhooks, could be settled amicably. The Nazis of Danzig could return to the Reich; they can do so voluntarily; they could do so in mass fashion by an agreement between Poland and Germany. Their repatriation would be a small matter compared with that of the German-speaking population of the South Tyrol. The Germans of the South Tyrol have been there for centuries; their roots have struck deep. Now, against their will (for they would have preferred the inclusion of their country in the Reich) they are being uprooted; they must go where Herr Hitler decrees and begin their lives anew. If that is possible in the Hitlerian programme in the case of the South Tyrolese it should be possible as well where the Danzingers are concerned. Perhaps the explanation is to be found in the following utterances of the Fuehrer: "It is my irrevocable will and my bequest to the German people that the frontier of the Alps, which Nature has erected between us, shall be regarded for ever as unchangeable." He is unwilling to give a similar guarantee that the frontier of Poland will not be violated.

WHEN DOCTORS DISAGREE

The Atlantic Monthly has opened its columns to a discussion of the pros and cons of socialized medicine. Dr. Henry Sigerist, a high-ranking professor at Johns Hopkins University, wrote in support of the idea in the June number. The case from an opposing standpoint is presented in the current issue by three physicians of repute, Drs. Emerson, Siddell and Smith. Some of the points brought out on either side may be briefly set forth. Dr. Sigerist, who, since 1933, has specialized in Switzerland, London and Munich, and lectured on medicine at Zurich and Leipzig before coming to America. He says that health conditions are better in the United States than in Southern Europe, but certainly not better than in the Scandinavian countries, and not much better than in England, Germany, Switzerland, or Holland. He is emphatic in saying that where the United States is ahead the condition is not due to superior medical science, but to a higher standard of living. Health conditions, however, in the United States are not good enough when one-third of the population has no medical service, or at least not enough. To meet this need, voluntary insurance is not enough, in Dr. Sigerist's opinion. To be effective, health insurance should be provided out of the taxes. No country that has enjoyed the benefits of social insurance has made the slightest move to relinquish them. Vague fears of socialized medicine have been expressed. Some doctors are afraid of bureaucracy, and some, and some are afraid of bureaucracy. They are trained as scientists, but they are ill-informed upon the subject of compulsory health insurance, and those doctors who are opposed to socialized medicine know little of economics and sociology. One story is good until another is told. The three physicians mentioned above, who now reply to Dr. Sigerist, have had experience in many fields—in private practice, in hospital work, in the army, in medical health offices. In medical surveys, and in teaching. Their replies contain the suggestion that the motives and methods of those who would replace professional by political control will bear critical scrutiny. They say, moreover, that physicians who are opposed to socialized medicine know enough of economics, at any rate, to come to the conclusion that the dominant motive of all these insurance plans is the relief of poverty, and not the preservation of public health. Compulsory insurance against the cost of sickness is a way of spending public money, of redistributing wealth without regard to the quality or the results of the medical services to be bought.

The National Health Survey was a search for sickness, not a study of health, and the answers collected by the investigators have been interpreted in such a way as to create a volume of exaggeration as to the extent of medical inadequacy in the country at large. Evidence is now being collected from all parts of the country which casts serious doubts on the oft-repeated statement that more than a third of the population lacks medical care. Less than 5 per cent of the people are more than thirty miles from a hospital. Given automobiles and good roads, that means an hour away. It is a good distribution of hospitals, and it has been achieved by voluntary effort. "Why," asks Dr. Smith, "should medicine be selected for governmental regulation any more than, for example, the church?" Doctors are anxious to avoid pernicious political control, and are afraid of a "Russian" system of medical care. No one doubts that it is desirable to extend and improve the facilities for providing medical care; but that a "socialized medicine" scheme will do this is nothing more than an unproved assumption. It seems pretty clear that the disputants have a long way to go before reaching agreement, and further contributions to the controversy will be read with interest.

PUBLIC SPENDING

Figures compiled by the Citizens' Research Institute show that Canada's governmental expenditures for the fiscal year 1936-1937 amounted to 25.3 per cent of the national income. In other words, one-fourth of what is acquired by the enterprise of the people is absorbed in their administration. In the fiscal year 1928-1929 only 13.6 of the national income was so employed. The figures preclude only ordinary governmental outlays; they do not allow for capital expenditures.

The burden of government is substantially greater in Canada than, for instance, in Great Britain or Australia. In Great Britain, the ratio of Government expenditures to national income has been fairly stable for a number of years. In 1936-1937 it was 22.6 per cent. In Australia the ratio in 1935-1936 was 19 per cent. In Canada, taxation in relation to the national income was 21.7 per cent in 1936-1937; in Australia the ratio in 1935-1936 was 16.9 per cent. Statistics show that since 1929 the tax burden in Canada has recorded the greatest increase as compared with Great Britain, Australia and the United States. The review also shows that for a number of years government expenditures have exceeded receipts in the Dominion, with the result that there has been a steadily mounting debt. The per capita government debt totaled $665 in 1938, as compared with $550 in 1929. In the United States, in the same years, the per capita debt increased from $277 in 1929 to $434 in 1938.

FINANCIAL IMMORALITY

One of the most striking changes that has overtaken the spirit of man in these latter days is in the outlook on the subject of debt. The motto of Shakespeare—"neither a lender nor a borrower be"—has gone into the discard. It is the fashion now to be in debt. It used to be the fashion to pay all debts on the nail, and to make the guiding principle of domestic economy to live within one's income. Under the new dispensation, debts are no longer frightening. They are, in fact, lightly dishonored by individuals and governments. In other words, there is a new immorality respecting them, an ethic which does not do credit to human nature. Moral standards have so far gone by the board that it is small wonder there is suspicion such as there never was before in international relationships. "Ain't them words the truth, though?" . . . A Jackson, Mich., factory is now producing automobile horns which play bars of "Boys and Girls Together," "California Here I Come," "Hon Dry Am," "Bugle Call," and "Sweet Adeline." They might go one better and manufacture tooters which warble "Please move out of the way," "Watch your step," "Ops, excuse me," "Watch the light, cutie," or "Watcha don't tonight, blonde?"—G.B.

A writer who alludes to "Three Cheers for the Red, White and Blue," as a song of the Boer War, has been corrected. It was written before July, 1884. The words, "Our banners make tyranny tremble when borne by the Red, White and Blue," refer to the Red, White and Blue squadrons of the Fleet. Sir Alan Moore says that in 1884 the White Ensign only was assigned to the Royal Navy for ordinary use; the Red, the senior ensign, became the exclusive flag of the Merchant Service, and the Blue was allotted to the Royal Naval Reserve.

We should give relief as we would receive—cheerfully, quickly, and without hesitation; for there is no greater in a benefit that sticks to the fingers.—Seneca.

Kippers, Sir?

Seafaring men are occasionally forced by shipwreck or storm to subsist on unusual and often unpalatable diets for long periods of time. Seafoods, such as cod, haddock, salmon, and other such dishes have been the staple food of many a marooned mariner. A local sailor told us not long ago of a diet on which he had once had to exist, which seems to us to be one of the least pleasant imaginable. Sailing from Wales to Montreal with a cargo of coal, his ship had run into a terrific hurricane in mid-Atlantic. Waves, mountain-high, washed over the vessel, partly disabling her and flooding the section of the hold where the food supply was kept. All the victuals were destroyed except a large stock of smoked "kippers" and some dried apples. There was nothing for it but to dine on the smoked fish, and the remainder of the crewing, which lasted twice as long as usual. Accordingly, all hands consumed smoked herring, breakfast, dinner and supper, for forty-two consecutive meals. The only variation on the menu was the fact that the men were supplied with a carefully rationed supply of dilute apple soup. When the boat docked, the entire crew, from captain to cabin-boy, made a dash for the nearest restaurant, intending to tickle the palate of the waiter with the herring and eggs of roast chicken. One can picture their crestfallen faces when the waiter came in and announced that the breakfast special was "grid-iron cooked kippers" with apple sauce.—E.B.

Takes Fatal Plunge

"Cornflakes," one of the youngest members of the police force, and cousin of the famous "Mush," is about to take the fatal plunge which erroneously leads many to believe two can live as cheaply as one. During the week he was seen shopping for furniture with his future better half. Much to the merchant's surprise, "Cornflakes" drew two $50 bills from his jeans and paid cash. We wish the blue coat a long and happy married life, and hope the new bride will be a more excellent chance than any now prevailing of removing the cause of war. It would mean that men had begun to trust their fellows once again.

A writer who alludes to "Three Cheers for the Red, White and Blue," as a song of the Boer War, has been corrected. It was written before July, 1884. The words, "Our banners make tyranny tremble when borne by the Red, White and Blue," refer to the Red, White and Blue squadrons of the Fleet. Sir Alan Moore says that in 1884 the White Ensign only was assigned to the Royal Navy for ordinary use; the Red, the senior ensign, became the exclusive flag of the Merchant Service, and the Blue was allotted to the Royal Naval Reserve.

Pipe Band to Beat Retreat In City Parks

With the object of providing entertainment for tourists and residents of Victoria, the city celebration committee yesterday approved plans, performed by the 1st Battalion, Canadian Scottish, Pipe Band, which is to play on Treasure Island on August 26 in the American pipe band championships. As sunset on Monday the band will beat retreat in Parliament Square, and on Tuesday, August 23, in the Victoria West Park. On Thursday, August 24, the retreat will be played in Stadcona Park. Next Wednesday night a concert will be given in Central Park by a band made up of musicians of all the brass bands in Victoria. The schedule of performances was announced by Alderman W. H. Davies, chairman of the celebrations committee.

FIFTY YEARS AGO TODAY

"From The Daily Colonist of August 4, 1889." Ice to be Made Here—Alderman Kelly will commence the manufacture of ice on Monday morning at his new ice works on Store Street, when he will be able to supply the public with this luxury. Victorians for the past season have depended mainly on Port Townsend for their ice supply, but from and after tomorrow they can purchase the home manufactured article.

New Sprinkler Will Commence Operations—The new sprinkler, which many people have been led to imagine would not be ready for service until next summer, or possibly the summer of 1901, will be ready and truly put to service tomorrow, sprinkling the streets. The new sprinkler is a dandy. It weighs a ton and has a capacity of 800 gallons, or four tons weight of water.

Makes Fast Passage—The steamship City of Paris has made the run from Liverpool fifty minutes faster than any other ship of head winds for four days. This beats all records except her own. The next trip she promises to beat her own record.

SAFETY WEEK IS OUTLINED

Police Commissioners and Chief to Sponsor Campaign Starting Monday

Next Monday to Friday will be observed as Safety Week, under the sponsorship of Mayor Andrew McAvlin, with Police Commissioners Edward Williams and Archie Wills, and Chief J. A. McLeellan.

It was explained yesterday by the chief that the object of the campaign was to promote safer automobile driving, eliminate needless accidents, and impress on pedestrians traffic regulations designed for their protection.

Chief McLeellan will broadcast at 6:45 o'clock on Saturday evening, and again on Tuesday or Wednesday. "Traffic congestion requires caution," the chief stated. "Most accidents come from ordinary causes, such as pedestrians coming out from between parked automobiles, drivers pulling away from curbs without proper signals, and those who stop suddenly in front of another car without warning."

"Many a motorist does not realize that when he turns his head away for one second at thirty miles per hour, he travels forty-four feet without seeing the road," the chief explained.

FREEDOM

Sir,—While reading today "Note and Comment," I Sandham Graves, in Sunday's Colonist, I was reminded of William Wordsworth's sonnet on "Liberty." I will give only the last four lines.

We must be free or die, who speak the tongue
That Shakespeare spoke, the faith
Which Milton held, in everything we are
Of earth's best blood, have titles manifold.

You will agree with me, I am sure, when I state that there is food for thought here. It is worth reading more than once, and your readers will do well to ponder over such words of both Sandham Graves and William Wordsworth.

ST. STEPHEN'S DAY

Sir,—In the Sunday issue, July 30, an article by Annie Garvey, "Wren Day in Ireland," attracted attention. I recall the Irish goosena going from house to house in County Meath with a wren's head on a stick fastened with a piece of ribbon, their sing-song rhyme like this: "The wren, the wren, the king of all birds, St. Stephen's Day was cut in—'Tis the fur, up with the kittle, down with the pan, So give us a trate, kind gintleman."

If a lady answered the door, the last line would be: "Give us a penny to bury the wren."

The "Natural History of Selbourne," by Gilbert White, describes the wren, smallest willow, middle willow and largest willow, as Summer birds of passage.

The writer would like to learn who was St. Stephen and why St. Stephen's Day was chosen for this masquerade.

NEW DEMOCRACY

Sir,—If Mr. Herdridge does not grant press interviews there is probably a reason. Your own editorial seems to provide the answer in that it lacks any sign of magnanimity. You will persist in describing him as a "leader" of a new party. New Democracy is a "movement" composed of several hundred organizations whose aims have been codified into a simple policy demanding results without delay. It is a movement for attaining them. In doing this it will bring the function of government into line with everyday procedure. For example, when you engage a plumber you explain your policy and the results you want, but you do not attempt to tell him how he is to do the job. You leave the question of method to him and he knows he must produce the results you want if he wishes to complete the contract.

So it is in every walk of life except in the most vital part of our social system—our Government. We never demand from it the results we know

CHINESE IVORY AND PORCELAIN

Sir,—Would you be good enough to allow me space to say how very much I and many friends, both in Victoria and on the Mainland, have enjoyed viewing the magnificent collection of Chinese ivory and porcelain which Mrs. Bailey has so generously displayed in her private apartments at 1214 Government Street? I feel sure I am voicing the opinion of scores of persons are physically possible, and consequently we never get them.

The people having expressed their policy, insist that their representatives—become spokesmen of that policy. This does not entail any form of leadership other than having a chief spokesman.

People distrust "leaders" these days and do not wish in a democracy to have any one man, however capable, intrusted with more authority than is necessary to do the job. We do not want to be governed by experts but to use the latter in their proper sphere.

Your solicitude that New Democracy is not making full use of the press may be sincere, but people do not like seeing their efforts held up to continual ridicule. They no longer need to "read" about conditions—they now "feel" them and are therefore not disposed to read, as in your editorial, that no one understands what it is all about.

Rest assured they are, and press or no press, they are in earnest this time. At least that is how we interpret the feelings of the increasing number who are rallying to the New Democracy movement.

Would that we could enlist your support, too. A. H. JUKES.

GORGE POLLUTION

Sir,—From an editorial in The Colonist, October 12, 1938, I quote: "Apart from certain products of the rain, Victoria being an island, despoiled of its natural beauty and vitality by the free movement of ships to and from its docks. . . . Waterborne traffic, both passenger and freight, has been responsible for Victoria's water pollution. The cause for which the exhibition has been held most commendable."

Dealing with the Gorge tributary, Victoria harbor, and the industrial section, the above statement must, and should, receive the first consideration. It is an actual fact that the pollution is attributable to and from this source, through the boats and passengers, the industries of many varieties along the banks from the entrance to Selkirk wharves, the many inlets of sewage from many districts adjoining the harbor of Victoria, and it is also a fact that if Victoria should progress, and so must not be interfered with. The problem is how can the tributaries of the Gorge be protected from this increasing danger of pollution.

There is a great area being brought by the city on sewage from Saanich. Even if this were true there is a remedy, and the remedy will improve the Gorge and benefit the health and prosperity of the Saanich and Esquimalt municipalities and will be carried out of necessity, whatever may happen to the Gorge. At the present time this is not of grave moment as far as it affects the Gorge.

May I deal with the letter signed by Mr. M. To for a look at the Gorge, and as he suggests, retain the tidal waters (coming through from the harbor) polluted and carrying with them all these dangers, and then as he suggests, "retaining this water at full or half tide level, surely would aggravate the present evil. Far better it should remain as it is now, when the tide coming back freely does bring back some of the contamination. Again, to put a lock at the Gorge instead of the top of Selkirk wharves, the foot of the harbor, take away the use of the city bathing beach and the beautiful stretch of water upon which all the sports of the past have been held.

He states "the elimination of contamination is a certain cure, whereas the effect of the lock is uncertain." I can only say that the elimination of contamination can only be effected by cutting it off at the source, at the entrance of same at the foot of Harriet Road, 150 feet across the inlet, and then after cutting the canal through fresh water, the water could create a change all through the portage, the Gorge, and Victoria Arm, and this same water would create a change also in the industrial section, the harbor and all parts, and so, to a great extent, improve the sanitary necessity in the harbor, having to pass through the harbor to the outlet, now the entrance to Victoria.

To cut the canal gives the Gorge added value by allowing boats to pass through to the Lagoon and other attractions, direct from the Causeway. We would have clean fresh salt water when needed by the change for bathing, increased values of property, and by the lock system, I suggest four feet of water could be retained over and above the present low tide, enabling boats to travel at any time.

The idea of using these waters for pumping sewage would receive very little consideration from any practical engineer.

Doukhobors Want to Retain Lands; Name Board to Negotiate

Members of Sect to Make Effort to Arrange for Purchase of Foreclosed Property—Leader Of Group Makes Statement

NELSON, B.C., Aug. 3 (P)—A committee of Doukhobors in the West Kootenay Interior is being appointed to negotiate with the Sun Life Assurance Company in an effort to arrange for purchase of foreclosed Doukhobor lands, John J. Verigin, seventeen-year-old leader of the Russian religious sect, announced here tonight.

Young Verigin, grandson of Peter Verigin II, who died earlier this year, said it is not necessary to evict us from holdings of many thousands of acres in the Kootenay district which have been foreclosed by court order granted the Sun Life Company.

He said Doukhobors now facing eviction are making a survey of their sect to determine those ready to purchase back as individuals the lands which have been foreclosed for non-payment of a mortgage incurred some years ago by the Christian Community of Universal Brotherhood, business organization of Canada's Doukhobors.

Verigin's announcement followed institution of proceedings at Vancouver by the Sun Life Company for commitment of Sheriff M. E. Harper, of Nelson, for contempt of court as a result of alleged failure to evict Doukhobors from the foreclosed lands.

READY TO BUY
Verigin said the "solid, respectable Doukhobors" of the district are ready to buy back the lands if they can arrange satisfactory terms. He asked that the public draw a distinction between the respectable Doukhobors and "those who have been causing trouble." The trouble-makers, he said, will be segregated as a result of the survey.

"We are trying to bring our people to an understanding of the problem, and pointing out a reasonable extension of time from the Sun Life Company, we hope to settle the problem in such a way as to satisfy all parties concerned," he said.

"Naturally, we expect reasonable terms from the Sun Life, and, if necessary, some assistance from the British Columbia Government in getting an agreement between the company and the Doukhobors in regard to purchase."

Stating the negotiating committee is being appointed, Verigin added: "It will soon be found out who are willing to purchase. These people will expect the Government to take whatever steps are necessary to deal with those who really caused the trouble and who will not come to terms."

MAKE DISTINCTION
"All we ask from the public is that they make a distinction between the people who deserve to be called Doukhobors and those who blacken the Doukhobor name. We feel that we are not asking too much, and we hope that soon the general public will come to realize this and that all the misunderstandings encountered so far will be over and everybody will be happy."

Verigin said the Doukhobors do not wish to postpone their action on the purchase problem until October 1. A previous announcement said a special meeting of Doukhobors was to be held then to consider the matter. Tonight Verigin said the October 1 meeting will not deal with the matter.

"It is of little concern to the leaders whether the Doukhobors purchase the land as individuals or as small communal groups," he said, "so long as the matter is met squarely and is solved satisfactorily."

WILL SAVE LANDS
"We do not want to leave our lands, or to lose the work that has gone into them."

"Neither do we wish to become a burden on the Government."

"We will know very soon who are willing to buy the land and who are the malcontents—and when we know that we can go forward."

Verigin said he is addressing an appeal to the Sun Life Company's loan manager, R. N. Wilson, to "stay all proceedings" against the Doukhobors until August 15, in order that he may be able to "speed the purchase of land by responsible members of the sect."

SEWAGE ISSUE TO BE STUDIED
Oak Bay Council Refuses to Take Sides in City's Dispute With Saanich

Oak Bay will not take sides in the dispute between Victoria and Saanich over pollution of the Gorge waters and the question of the sewage, it was decided at a meeting of the Oak Bay Council last night.

On receipt of a letter from the City Council, asking Oak Bay to co-operate in action to force Saanich to install a modern sewage system, councilors decided that the matter was one which should be dealt with by the provincial health officer, and determined that Oak Bay should not become involved in inter-municipal problems.

At the same time, the Oak Bay health officer was instructed to make a thorough study of the question of the Saanich sewage system insofar as it affected the municipality of Oak Bay. Councilors J. V. Johnson and William Ellis contended that statements to the effect that the Saanich system was inadequate were based on hearsay only, and should be carefully investigated before any definite action was taken.

NO NEW ACTION
Reeve R. H. Taylor and R. F. Blandy, municipal clerk, reported on developments in connection with the proposal for a unified Greater Victoria transportation system, but no new action was taken by the council on the matter. The municipality will continue to co-operate with the inter-municipal committee in efforts to draw up a transportation tender form suitable for the four municipalities concerned.

Some inadequacies in the municipality's building by-law were reported by T. Watt, building inspector, and the municipal clerk. The matter was referred to the works committee, which will make a thorough study of the by-law and suggest changes, possibly based on the new building by-law of the City Council. It was mentioned that the Oak Bay by-law had not been substantially modified since it was first drawn in 1908.

The council accepted the semi-annual report of the relief officer, and the annual report of the municipal health officer. The latter showed that there had been an exceptionally small number of communicable diseases of any kind in the past year.

Reeve Taylor was empowered to name three delegates to the annual

The resolution said delegates "have the fullest confidence in the integrity and ability of Brigadier Foster, who is known and respected throughout the British Empire as a gallant soldier, a fine gentleman and a great leader."

A few minutes earlier delegates had passed a motion congratulating Foster on his recent elevation in rank from colonel to brigadier.

The resolutions were passed during an opening session marked by one of the most spectacular demonstrations in the provincial command's history, according to Brigadier Foster after he had officially opened the convention.

TEACHERS GIVE PUPILS' PARTY

Demonstration Class at Summer School of Education Entertained

Teachers taking the course in primary education at the Summer school gave a farewell party yesterday morning to the boys and girls who have served as Grades I and II demonstration classes for the past five weeks.

The party took place in one of the classrooms on the third floor, where an exhibition of primary practical arts was on display throughout the day. Three rooms were filled with the interesting results of the course in fine and industrial arts and play materials, which was designed for the purpose of giving teachers a critical study of materials for constructive and creative expression.

The results of study of and working with crayons, paints, paper, cardboard, clay, lumber and tools, and various textiles were spread about the desks and walls or arranged on tables. Each teacher had prepared one or more projects illustrating the use of such materials, and of special interest were those showing how the child could be taught practical art activities with the use of "waste material"—an "elephant" pin-cushion made from remnants of an old inner tube, a scrapbook made from waste cardboard that came around a dress, a bag of waste material, a collection of old buttons, a collection of old shoe boxes, and an apron from a newspaper.

PRACTICAL WORK
Other projects indicated modern education's method of relating manual activity to practical knowledge. One such was the "Corner Store," every article (in miniature) on the shelves of which was neatly ticketed with price. A dairy was illustrated in the same way, eggs and containers being "synthetic." In another section were shown model projects of school playground, a marionette show, a circus, theatre, Maypole dancers, a Dutch farm, complete with cows and windmill, and a Punch and Judy show.

Among the special guests at the morning party was H. L. Campbell, director of the Summer School, who is today bidding goodbye to the majority of the more than 800 teachers who have been taking the courses.

COMMITTEES CHOSEN
The first day's abbreviated sessions concluded with selection of committees which will report to the convention tomorrow on various resolutions submitted.

After official opening ceremonies of the command proper, the women's branch adjourned to nearby quarters where they selected committees, later joining other delegates in a trip to Tranquille Sanatorium.

The day's programme concluded with a smoker.

Deserters Are Given Hard Labor

LONDON, Aug. 3 (CP)—Thirty-two of thirty-nine crew members of the liner Nager who bolted the ship at Port Elizabeth, South Africa, charging the food aboard was inedible, were sentenced to six weeks at hard labor by an East Hain court today. The other seven men were bound over to keep the peace.

Two little boys were overheard by a nurse in a children's ward discussing their hospital experiences. Said one, "Are you medical or surgical?"

The other shook his head. "Dunno what you mean," he replied.

The first little boy looked scornful. He had been a patient in the ward for many weeks.

"Was you bad when you come?" he persisted. "or did they make you bad after you come?"

Coming Star Is Welcomed In Victoria

Vivian Della Chiesa, who in company with John Charles Thomas appeared in Vancouver on Wednesday night in the festival of musical comedy held in Stanley Park Bowl, arrived in Victoria yesterday.

That Miss Chiesa is one of the future great stars of the stage was the prediction of Mr. Thomas when chatting with Mr. Brian Burdon-Murphy in Vancouver.

Miss Chiesa, whose beautiful voice had thrilled the Vancouver audience, left later in the afternoon for Seattle, en route to Marin County, Cal., where she will sing in an engagement with Mario Schanbe, celebrated tenor. She will also be heard in a broadcast on August 26, when she sings at Grand Park, New York.

Prior to appearing in Vancouver, Miss Chiesa sang with Mr. Thomas in "The Gypsy Baron" in San Francisco and Los Angeles. Miss Chiesa is with the Chicago Opera Company and will sing with Mr. Thomas and Martinelli with the San Francisco and the Chicago Opera Companies when she takes the feminine role in "Pagliacci." This will be among her leading roles when the fall season opens.

OUT OF HARM

The visitor in Devon was curious about the meaning of a broad black mark close to the eaves of the oldest inhabitant's cottage.

"What does that mark stand for?" he asked.

"Oh, that was the height of the water in the big flood of 1893."

"Never! Why, the whole village and countryside must have been under water."

"Well, it used to be about two feet off the ground, but as boys kept rubbing it out, we had to put it higher."

Clubs-Societies

Central W.C.T.U.

Central W.C.T.U. held its annual picnic at the Japanese Tea Gardens at the Gorge yesterday afternoon. Mrs. Henry Webster presided during the business session. Mrs. J. R. Clements reported a favorable balance in the bank for the end of the year. The president referred to the International Congress Against Alcoholism, which is in session at Helsinki, Finland, and also the World Prohibitionist Federation, which is meeting there at the same time. Arrangements for the forthcoming provincial convention to be held in Victoria in September were outlined. Mrs. Quinn, Vancouver, was a guest. Mrs. David Fair, convener of the social committee, poured tea.

Sascenon W.A.

Under the auspices of the Sascenon W.A. of Holy Trinity Church, a most successful garden fête was held in the grounds of Colonel N. Fairweather and Mrs. Fairweather. The various attractions included home cooking, ice cream, clock golf, darts, coconut shy and boating. About fifty persons attended. In the evening there were five tables of bridge. First prizes were won by Mr. and Mrs. J. Collins.

Moose Women

Victoria Chapter No. 25, Women of the Moose, held a card party at the home of Mrs. Harper, 827 Pandora Avenue, on Monday evening. The winners at cards were Mesdames Penckth, Millstead, Jane, Gannell, R. Harper and Gurney. Refreshments were served. The next game will be held at the home of Mrs. Cowden, 919 Hillside Avenue.

New Silhouette

sandalwood, moulding the figure snugly from top to toe.

New elastic velvets made it possible for this silhouette to be the tightest and most serpentine seen in several years. Ragtail trains and tall box turbans exaggerated the height.

A group of "cinamomo" evening frocks launched by Paquin were accompanied by clanking gold jewelry and elastic velvet slippers. Scarves falling from the turbans netted the hair. Special makeup for the mannequins was softened to the coloring of the cinamomo flower.

Pairs were lavishly used on day ensembles, notably silver fox, ermine, astrakhan and beaver. Chamberlain-type umbrellas accompanied day ensembles.

First M.P. to Be Married in Ancient Crypt

LONDON, Aug. 3 (AP).—Miss Thelma Cazalet became today the first member of Parliament to be married in Westminster Crypt beneath the Houses of Parliament. The groom was David Keir, a lobby reporter.

Prime Minister Chamberlain and David Lloyd George attended the ceremony. Colonial Secretary Malcolm MacDonald was best man.

The bride, Conservative member of Parliament for Islington East, was given in marriage by her brother, Captain Victor Cazalet, M.P.

Esquimalt Jamboree Gay Affair

The jamboree held on Wednesday night in the grounds of St. Paul's Naval and Garrison Church, Esquimalt, proved a great success. For more than three hours crowds thronged the stalls and amusement centres on the lawn, surrounded by trees festooned with colored lights.

Floodlights illuminated the midway, which did a brisk business under the supervision of members of the A.Y.P.A., directed by the president, William Barclay, Mr. R. A. Naracott, was in charge of the ice cream and soft drinks and Mrs. G. L. Stephens sold home-made candies. The Women's Auxiliary had work and home-cooking stalls and Miss Mayhew told fortunes in a shaded bell tent. A musical programme was provided by the Warrackville Trio, under the direction of Mrs. Warr, in the hall where refreshments were served by the church choir, under the supervision of Mrs. Kennedy.

Members of the church committee helped in many ways and Harvey Dobson organized the entertainment and the dancing, which brought a very successful evening to a close. This combined effort on the part of all the church organizations was in aid of church funds.

Sympathizes With Women On Hat Style

NEW YORK, Aug. 3 (AP).—Women are tired of being Pixies, Zanies, Gypsies, Andalusians and what-nots and would like to be supplied with "wearable" hats for autumn, Alan A. Wells, manager of the sales promotion division of the National Retail Dry Goods Association, told a fashion clinic yesterday.

Addressing the Millinery Merchandising Executives' Association, he asserted that early Spring sales of last year showed the new millinery now in vogue to be unacceptable to many women.

"I cling to the belief," he said, "that most women will not deliberately make fools of themselves."

What Today Means

"LEO"
If August 4 is your birthday, the best hours for you on this date are from 10 a.m. until noon, from 3 to 5 p.m. and from 9 to 11 p.m. The danger periods are from 8 to 10 a.m. from 7 to 9 p.m. and from 11 p.m. until midnight.

Suspense will be nerve-racking today, so do nothing that will contribute to its disturbing anybody's peace of mind. Today a poor excuse will not be better than none, for the chances are that it will not be accepted. Very few people will have time to show resentment over any attempt made to fool them today, so it might be good judgment to stick to frankness and above-the-board methods of transacting business. This is a good day to accept advice, if you are convinced it is backed by sincerity. Anyone resorting to technicalities as a means to a desired end are likely to find themselves involved in them, so it will pay to be careful in this respect. Vanity may be the cause of a great amount of unwise boasting today and the contributing cause of much embarrassment. The average person will find this an auspicious day for all forms of negotiations, particularly for any involving leaves, financial adjustments, and the securing of capital. Married and engaged couples, and prospective fiancées, must be careful not to assume that anything will be done through intuition instead of by actual request today, so desires should be clearly defined and expressed.

If a woman and August 4 is your birthday, traveling and outdoor sports are likely to afford you an unlimited amount of pleasure. Through being level-headed you are not apt to have much respect for any form of superstition. Your judgment regarding people probably is often sought; so be careful that your likes and dislikes do not influence it. You ought to have no difficulty in adapting yourself to new environments, conditions or business associates. You should be excellent at any kind of research work for intricate details are likely to fascinate you. Through educational, literary, scientific, legal, medical, chemical, or some kind of publicity activity you may be pre-eminently successful. Your matrimonial life and affairs should be most satisfactory.

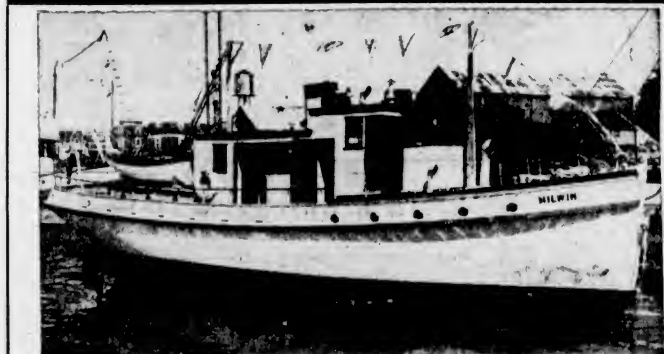

The child born on August 4 may have so much pep and physical strength that its playmates will not regard it with not being intentionally rough and ready in both athletic sports and ordinary play. Through its efficiency and quick work this youngster will probably always take a first place among the winners in life's race.

If a man and August 4 is your natal day, temperamentally you seem to be well qualified to be a big success as a composer, inventor, promoter, financier, naturalist, author, lawyer, or sales agent.

Pattern 9117

THOSE extra pounds just won't matter when you slip into this magic frock. With typical Marian Martin skill, Pattern 9117 aligns and conceals, all with the greatest of style and femininity. The skirt, many-gored in front and single-seamed in back is carefully planned for slender hip and thigh lines. But high honors go to the bodice. A gently scalloped yoke curves gracefully across the front, with gathers beneath to release wonderful softness. And a rippling jabot, pretty in lace or dainty eyelet embroidery is used to conceal a heavy bust. Lacy trim adds a dressed-up note.

Pattern 9117 may be ordered only in women's sizes 34, 36, 38, 40, 42, 44, 46 and 48. Size 26 requires 3 1/2 yards 39-inch fabric, 1/2 yard contrast and 4 1/2 yards lace edging.

MISSION ON WAY TO ITALY

Diplomats here reported last Friday that a Japanese military and economic mission en route to Italy and Germany would go into the question of closer military, political and economic ties with the axis powers.

This mission, headed by General Count Ichiji Teruchi and Admiral Baron Mineo Onuma, is due at Naples on August 26 and will attend the Nazi party congress at Nuremberg, Germany, in September.

(The Japanese Foreign Office, at the time of that report, denied the mission had any special significance, and said the ambassadors to Rome and Berlin would be entrusted with handling any negotiations with the axis.)

was "among the first to insist that we would be bound by no commitments which might involve obligation to enter war. In a word," he said, "we sought the benefits of a collective association without paying the price. We know that there is no security in mere words and titles."

Mr. Meighen continued:

"Canada cannot defend itself. Like all other peoples, we must look around and decide where it is wisest to make allies. Canadians generally have little difficulty in deciding where to look."

LAZY CONFIDENCE

"We cannot make allies anywhere without engaging in obligations. Implied or expressed, and these obligations must be real. . . . The wise course is, therefore, very simple, but we do not seem to want to face either the sternness of facts or the toil of thinking. . . . We roll around in lazy confidence that we are going to be protected in this heritage by the gallantry and sacrifice of others."

Senator Buchanan blamed public indifference in the fact of treaty breaking for the present troubled state of the world.

Mr. Ferguson urged a strong public opinion directed to the re-establishment of the League.

Isolation was no longer possible as a policy for any country, and a return to League principles was necessary, said Senator Hughes.

CHIDES CANADIAN PEOPLE

Professor Soward chided the Canadian people with being more inclined to render lip service to peace than to uphold the principles "which their statesmen voluntarily accepted on their behalf twenty-five years ago."

"Canada, from the beginning, sought to escape from the obligations, the undertaking of which established her place among the nations," said Dr. Tully. "It would be a long struggle to restore League principles, but the alternative was chaos. 'The only fear is,' said Dr. Tully, 'that chaos may come first.'"

Others contributing to the symposium voiced similar apprehensions and urged a return to the fundamentals on which the League of Nations had been built a quarter of a century ago.

ENGLISH SCHOOLBOYS COMING TO CANADA

LONDON, Aug. 3 (P).—Fifty secondary schoolboys sailed from London aboard the Aurania tonight to tour Canada under the auspices of W. H. Rhodes Canada Education Fund.

The party, in charge of Captain C. L. Evans, of London, and R. C. M. McDougall, of Glasgow, will visit a number of cities and places of interest in Ontario and Quebec, and will be given many opportunities to meet Canadian youths.

PROVIDE CHANCE TO STUDY STARS

Astronomical Society and Tourist Trade Group Will Mount Telescopes on Beacon Hill

Through the efforts of the Tourist Trade Group of the Chamber of Commerce, and the Victoria Centre of the Royal Astronomical Society of Canada, Victorians will have an excellent opportunity to observe Mars, the moon and Jupiter, and other heavenly bodies, during the month of August. The two organizations have arranged for two telescopes to be mounted on the side of Beacon Hill, and two members of the Astronomical Society will be on hand at 8 o'clock each Wednesday night in August, beginning next week, to explain all that is of interest to amateur observers.

Frank Waring is in charge of the plan for the Tourist Trade Group, and Dr. R. M. Pettie, of the Dominion Astrophysical Observatory, Saanich, who is president of the Astronomical Society, will supervise the arrangements for observations at the park.

SUPERVISED TRAFFIC

Chief of Police McLellan has arranged to provide supervision of traffic at the park, so that the view of the star-gazers will in no way be obstructed.

The city park board will play its part by roping off a section of the hillside, enabling the society representatives to control the number of people near the telescope. This arrangement will be necessary to provide protection for the instruments.

Plans for the placing of telescopes at Beacon Hill have been made in consequence of many requests from tourists this season that they might be shown Mars through the large Dominion Observatory telescope. This was not possible, since the large instrument could not be trained sufficiently low in the heavens.

DIMAGGIO HITS TWO HOMERS AS YANKEES WIN

NEW YORK FINALLY HALTS TIGERS, 12-3 WITH HEAVY ATTACK

Champions, Led by Hard-Hitting Outfielder, Score Easy Victory Over Detroit—Red Sox Troupe Cleveland, 17-6, as Indians Commit Six Errors—Cardinals Win Twin Bill

By The Canadian Press

The world champion Yankees, who just won't stay down long, cuffed the Detroit Tigers 12-3 at New York yesterday with a fifteen-hit bombardment which included four home runs, two of them by Joe DiMaggio.

The Bronx bombers, retaliating for embarrassing defeats in the first two games of their series, stormed over three Detroit pitchers. They finished Buck Newsom, the Tigers' starter, with a six-run blast in the fifth.

DiMaggio's first homer came with two on in the first and the other concluded the Yankee attack in the eighth. In addition Bill Dickey hit his seventeenth of the season in the third and "Red" Rolfe hit for the circuit in the sixth.

In Boston, the Red Sox made it three out of four against Cleveland, taking the series finale 17-6 by merely letting the Indians beat themselves.

Six errors were charged up against the jittery Clevelanders, who gave one of their worst performances here in years.

The Senators made it three straight over St. Louis at Washington, beating the Browns 9-5.

HAS GREAT DAY
Outfielder George Case, of the Senators, had a big day. He stole three bases to increase his total to thirty-seven, scored three runs and hit a triple, double and single.

In Philadelphia the Cardinals cut a full game off the National League lead of the idle Cincinnati Reds by defeating the Boston Bees in both halves of a double-header at St. Louis.

The victories by scores of 5-1 and 4-3 placed the Cardinals more securely in second place, nine and a half games behind the front-running Reds, who were rained out.

Joe Medwick, in the limelight after a temperamental run-in with Manager Ray Blades, played the full eighteen innings and contributed a home run and a double to the Cardinals' fourteen-hit attack on Bill Poedel in the opener.

Enos Slaughter also hit a homer in the first game and clouded another in the nightcap as the Cardinals rallied to make it a perfect day.

WARNEKE TRIUMPHS
Lon Warneke won his tenth victory of the season in the opener in pitching his first complete game since May 30.

In Chicago the Cubs defeated the Philadelphia Phillies, 9-6, but that wasn't the half of it.

Both starting pitchers were chased, Cub rookies had a field day. Morrie Aronovitch, the National League's leading hitter, was benched; Coach Hans Lober, of the Phils, was banished; and Doc Prothro, Philly manager, walked off the field in "disgust."

The Cubs were outlived fifteen to thirteen, but a big fourth inning, including homers by Stan Hack and Hank Leiber, helped Bill Lee to his twelfth triumph, although he had to be rescued by Jack Russell.

The Brooklyn Dodgers pulled themselves back into a tie for fifth place in the league with a 4-1 victory over the Pirates in their series finale at Pittsburgh.

Rain caused postponement of the scheduled New York-at-Cincinnati game.

The Colonist cameraman visited the Victoria Lawn Tennis Club courts yesterday and caught this bit of action in the women's open doubles of the British Columbia championships. In the foreground is Cecile Miner, and at the net is Eleanor Young, Vancouver, and defending singles titleholder. In the background to the left is Miss G. Moran, Santa Monica, and on the right is Miss J. Brooke, also of Santa Monica. Semi-finals will be played today and the tournament will conclude tomorrow with the finals.

LAUNDRYMEN MARCH INTO BALL FINALS

Defeat Douglas Tire, 12-3, In Deciding Game—Play Longshoremen

Trouncing Douglas Tire softballers, 12-3, last night at Royal Athletic Park, in the preliminary play-offs, Manager Bert Simpson's hustling New Method Laundry men moved into the senior "A" finals against the Victoria Longshoremen, sectional champions.

Laundrymen played smart ball and tossed in three double killings just for good measure. They looked like champions behind Bill Buddell's seven-hit pitching performance, and after establishing a three-run lead in the opening frame went on to win by the one-sided score of 12-3.

Three were a badly beaten club, and failed to show anything like the form which has featured some of their league exhibitions during the pennant chase. They made three costly miscues and did considerable "beefing" about the umpire. At one stage of the game Douglas Tire softballers were considering walking off the field and leaving the Laundrymen to play by itself. The "walk-out" did not materialize, however, and the abbreviated fixture was called in the eighth on account of darkness.

HIT TWO HOMERS
New Method Laundry sluggers had a good night and hammered out fourteen base blows, including homers by Bob McKean and Burgess Berry, from the offering of "Red" Palmer and Lloyd Jones, opposing hurlers. Palmer was nipped for eight safeties and seven runs before giving way to the veteran portlander.

A triple by Sansbury, Laundrymen's flashy short stop, and a double by George "Porky" Andrews caused Palmer's exit from the mound after pitching only fair ball.

Lloyd Jones took over the heavy work in the fifth frame with two men on and none down. He was nipped for six singles and five runs during his three innings on the slab.

Bill Buddell, on the hill for the winners, hurled good ball, limiting the Tiren to seven scattered base blows.

NAVY BALL NINE DEFEATS OAK BAY

Defeating Oak Bay, 5-2 last night at Oak Bay Park, Navy baseballers continued to set the pace in the Second Division Humphreys Cup race. With only a few games remaining to complete their schedule, the sailors should have no difficulty clinching first place in the post-season play-downs.

Playing at Beacon Hill, Brown Bombers came to life in the last inning and gained a 9-0 tie in the Pitzer & Sons aggregation.

GAMES SUNDAY
Brown Bombers will set their home to the Mayo Lumber nine, smart Japanese club, Sunday, in a twin bill exhibition series at Reynolds Road. The matinee attraction will get underway at 1:30 o'clock and the second fixture will be played at 5 o'clock.

CLOSING SCORES IN O.C. CRICKET

LONDON, Aug. 3 (CP)—Somerset defeated the West Indian cricketers at Taunton today by an innings and 72 runs. In their first innings the tourists were dismissed for 84 runs, the lowest total of the campaign to date.

Rain prevented play today in the Essex-Kent, Warwickshire-Lancashire and Sussex-Nottinghamshire matches.

Close of play scores follow:
West Indies 84 and 189, Somerset, 345.
Derbyshire, 121 and 120 for two wickets; Gloucestershire, 198.

Semis Reached in B.C. Net Tourney At Victoria Courts

One Canadian Will Be in Final of Women's Singles, As Eleanor Young Meets Jean Milne Today—Amark Flashes Form in Trimming Canning—Two Hard-Fought Sets During Day

When the smoke of the battles clear from the well-groomed courts of the Victoria Lawn Tennis Club at the Willows today there will be one Canadian left in the running for the British Columbia women's singles championship. It will be either Eleanor Young, Vancouver, the defending titleholder, or Jean Milne, also from the Mainland.

As the luck of the draw, the two Vancouver girls clash today in the semi-final and the survivor of this interesting battle will meet the victor of the May Hope Doug vs. Cecile Miner match for the crown. Miss Doug is the Western Canada ruler, a title she captured only last week in Vancouver. She, like her opponent in the semis, hails from the southern state.

Miss Young put out Jean Murphy, Los Angeles, in the quarter final yesterday after two bitterly fought sets. The Vancouver miss went to extra games in both, winning the first at 7-5 and then conquering the American girl in the next at 8-6.

Both played heads-up tennis, with the British Columbia titleholder holding a slight edge during the exchanges. It was anybody's match from start to finish.

CHAMPION WINS
May Hope Doug, a strong favorite in this meet, from Santa Monica, came through with a three-set decision from Miss J. Brooke, from the same city, 6-2, 4-6, 6-4. Miss Doug's superior power and play at the net were the deciding factors, with a question of a doubt. Little Cecile Miner, Long Beach, disposed of Miss F. Umphred, Berkeley, after a stiff battle, 6-2, 6-4.

Topped by Eddie Amark, San Francisco, who is seeded number one, the men's singles moved into the semis. Amark was right at the peak of his game in trimming Bill Canning, Alameda, in straight sets by scores of 6-2, Bill Hooks, Honolulu, a student at right behind Amark, put out Jack Gurley, Sacramento, 6-2 and 18-16. Gurley never hit his stride in the first set, but in the marathon second he matched stroke for stroke and the gallery got plenty of thrills from the rallies in the thirty-four game battle.

Tom Brown, San Francisco, and T. Coulthard, Berkeley, marched into the other semi-final bracket with wins over Bill Reedy, Berkeley Hills, and Harry Hall, Bakersfield, respectively. In the matches today, Amark takes on Brown and Coulthard opposes Hooks.

Frances Umphred and T. Coulthard scored a great verdict over Miss E. Young and Commander J. C. I. Edwards, 7-5, 15-13. In the last set the Californians had match point no less than nine times before finally pulling through to victory.

SAMWAYS HEADS OPEN GOLF MEET
BURLINGTON, Ont., Aug. 3 (CP)—Herb Samways, of London Sunningdale, turned in a sparkling three-under-par 69 today to take a one-stroke lead at the end of eighteen holes in the Ontario open golf tournament.
Tied for second place were Bobby Burns, of Weston, and Arthur Dorman, professional at the Waterdown, Ont. Golf Club. Burns and Dorman each carded 70's in the first round. Eight others in the

British Columbia Championships Will Be Held Sunday, August 13

Ace scatter-gun artists from the Pacific Northwest will gather here next week to compete in the second annual British Columbia skeet championships. The provincial meet will be staged by the Victoria Skeet and Gun Club on their spacious grounds at Albert Head.

Elbeek Wilson, energetic secretary of the Victoria club, has sent out invitations to eighteen of the leading clubs in British Columbia, Alberta, Washington, Oregon and California.

J. A. Garrett, Vancouver, president of the Lieutenant-Governor's Trophy, symbolic of the provincial championship, will be on hand to defend his laurels. Many other topnotch Terminal city shooters will also be here in quest of the silverware and prize money. Only British Columbia residents are eligible to compete for this trophy, but there will be another cup for non-resident competitors. Runner-up prizes will also be awarded.

Mrs. Hockwilt, Edmonds, Washington, woman shooter, who finished in the runner-up berth last season, is expected to take another fling at the honors this year. One of the finest shots on the North American Continent, Mrs. Hockwilt attracted considerable attention here in 1938.

In addition to the individual events, an open team skeet competition will be held. Firing squads will be comprised of five shooters. Trapshooters will be able to participate in a special programme, and while no championship will be at stake, special prizes will be offered. The events will include a 100-target singles competition and 50-target handicap shoot. E. D. Todd, president of the local club, has donated silverware for these events.

LE ZOUTE, Belgium, Aug. 3 (AP)—After beating a local hotelkeeper on the nineteenth hole in the first round, King Leopold was eliminated today in the Belgium amateur golf championship at the same hole by P. J. Clive, son of the British Ambassador.

The king, the first reigning monarch to compete in the championship, ran into bad luck. At the eighteenth, his drive rolled near a gate and he had a bad lie on the nineteenth, where his drive stuck in the soggy turf.

Given Hard Battle by Joe Hunt in Annual Invitation Tourney

SOUTHAMPTON, N.Y., Aug. 3 (AP)—Bobby Riggs led the way into the semi-finals of both singles and doubles in the Meadow Club's annual invitation tennis tournament today, but the unpredictable Chicagoan had to fight hard to overcome Joe Hunt in the individual competition.

With Riggs into the round-of-four of the singles marched Sidney Wood, the former Wimbledon champion; Ernie Butler, of New Orleans, and Bob Kamrath, of Austin, Texas.

BARRYMORE CAST IN DOMINION FILM

Noted Actor Plays Leading Role in "On Borrowed Time" Opening Here Today

Doris Rankin, who twenty years ago was Lionel Barrymore's leading lady in one of the greatest successes of his stage career, "The Copperhead," rejoined him for the first time in what is expected to be one of his outstanding film vehicles, "On Borrowed Time." The picture will open today at the Dominion Theatre. Miss Rankin, daughter of McKee Rankin, one of the great stage names of that day, entered pictures in 1925. In "On Borrowed Time" she is seen as Mrs. Burlingame, the sheriff's wife, one of the first to learn of the death of Barrymore's son and daughter-in-law.

CAPITOL OFFERS "SECOND FIDDLE"

Irving Berlin's Latest Picture Hit Co-Stars Sonja Henie and Tyrone Power

First came Irving Berlin's "On the Avenue," then his "Alexander's Ragtime Band," and now Berlin's "Second Fiddle" to show film audiences what real entertainment, with music, can be. Six new songs fill the Twentieth Century-Fox film, which will open today at the Capitol Theatre. Sonja Henie is starred with Tyrone Power, and Rudy Vallee and Edna May Oliver head the featured cast. The songs are: "I'm Sorry for Myself," "An Old-Fashioned Time Always Is New," "Song of the Metronome," "When Winter Comes," "I Poured My Heart Into a Song," and "Back to Back." The new ballroom craze, a

BIG BOWLING MEET MONDAY
Twelfth Annual Tournament Attracts Big Entry Here Next Week

The twelfth annual bowling tournament of the Greater Victoria Lawn Bowling Association will get under way Monday and will continue on the various local greens for the remainder of the week. More than 200 trundlers from various parts of the province will compete for the honors, just about fifty short of the entry list of a year ago. Approximately 123 out-of-town players have filed their names with the tournament manager, S. Baxandall.

Due to the fact that the world's championship in San Francisco and Oakland from September 4 to 16, some well-known Americans will not be up here from California. However, the American entry is quite good and the lads from the other side of the border are expected to give a good account of themselves. Vancouver will have a strong contingent on hand, while pinks will be here from Pasadena, Powell River, Duncan, Port Alberni and other cities in the Northwest.

APPROVAL GIVEN WORKS SCHEME

City's Application for Grant Under Municipal Assistance Plan Forwarded to Ottawa

Provincial approval was given yesterday to Victoria City's application for financial aid under the Dominion-provincial municipal improvements assistance plan in respect of a $46,130 programme of public works, and the application has gone forward to Ottawa for Federal consent.

The city originally applied for aid on a $158,000 programme, but the figure was reduced because it exceeded the allotment to which the city was entitled. Of the $46,130 which the city plans to spend on improvements, the Dominion and Provincial Governments are asked to provide $26,800 for labor costs.

New applications for unstated amounts under the assistance scheme have been received by the Province from Port Alberni, Courtenay, and municipalities of the Mairland. Yesterday final approval was received from Ottawa for projects in Vancouver City at a cost of $199,000, of which the Governments will contribute $139,000.

TONSILLITIS AFTER TONSILLS HAVE BEEN REMOVED

A few years ago when operation for appendicitis was one of the popular topics of discussion, a story of that time was of a man who was rushed into hospital after having been in a street accident. Printed in indelible ink across his abdomen were these words: "In case of accident, please do not operate for appendicitis. It has been removed twice already."

Despite this story, some of your friends who have undergone operation for appendicitis will tell you that they have pains much like appendicitis pain in the region of the appendix. This is true because there may be adhesions—two surfaces sticking together—scar tissue that gets pulled by movements or exercise, pressure from gas in this region where wastes and gas must pass through a reverse or S curve.

Just as in operations for appendicitis you hear of children and adults who have attacks of tonsillitis and yet the "tonsils" have been removed twice already.

Dr. Wilson Voorhees, New York, in The Medical World, says: "Occasionally a physician finds tonsillitis in a child who had previously had his tonsils removed. Parents are often surprised to learn that an infection may take place on tonsil 'stumps.' These little fragments were not removed at operation or have grown since operation. Any tiny piece of tonsil left behind after operation may enlarge and cause as much trouble as the original tonsil itself."

It is interesting and gratifying to see a surgeon who has removed a tonsil put his light directly on the spot or bed from which the tonsil was removed and search diligently for any tiny stump or piece of tonsil tissue that may be still present.

Further, just as the tonsil itself can be the starting infection of rheumatism and heart disease, so also can these tiny stumps cause these ailments.

Sometimes, also, the sore throat, while not in the exact region, is so near it that the symptoms are exactly like those of tonsillitis. Upon looking into the throat one sees tiny elevations or mounds of tissue which are red and swollen. These little mounds must be thoroughly destroyed.
